A Few Words from the Pastor:

Moral Heroes – As we honor our graduates this weekend, I was struck by the words of one of my favorite columnists, David Brooks, who reflected upon the virtues of a “moral hero.” These virtues are a special challenge to those who are graduating and are well worth pondering! Here are a few:

- Moral Heroes do not overthink their decision before choosing to live this way. They didn’t weigh the costs and benefits or wage any internal battle with themselves. In short, they do not suffer from terminal caution.
- At some point in their lives, somebody planted an ideal. Somebody set a high example of what a good life looks like, and the person who went on to become a moral hero just assumed that, of course, that’s what one should do.
- Moral Heroes tend to have a “This is what I do” mentality. They don’t have a lofty sense of themselves. They don’t have a sense that they are doing anything extraordinary. “What I do is as simple and common as the laughter of a child,” Mother Teresa once said.
- They have a weird obliviousness to inferior pleasures. They are not tempted by worldly success because they are not interested in worldly success. They don’t talk much about personal happiness, because they’re not particularly interested in themselves, period.
- Another quality of the Moral Hero is constant goal expansion. Some believe that a person’s character is set in childhood — that after age 18, people don’t change all that much. That’s not how it is with these people. Moral Heroes are to moral life what lifelong learners are to intellectual life.

A Celebration of Two Hearts – On Friday of this week the church universal celebrates the feast of the most Sacred Heart of Jesus. On the following day the church observes the memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is certainly appropriate that these feasts are celebrated side-by-side, for the Scriptures reveal to us the love that Jesus and Mary have for one another.

Honoring the Apostle to Germany – Tuesday the church celebrates the feast of the great Benedictine, St. Boniface, who is considered to be the founder of Christianity in Germany. One of the earliest Benedictine parishes in our diocese was the parish of St. Boniface, in the village of St. Boniface, Pennsylvania. When my great grandparents emigrated from Germany, they settled in St. Boniface, and in fact three of the 12 children entered religious life with the Benedictines: a priest, a brother, and a sister.

A Deacon's Retreat - Our prayers are with Deacon Gene this week as he makes his annual retreat with his fellow deacons. It is said that a retreat is a wonderful opportunity for a person to “recharge his batteries.” May the abundant graces of the Holy Spirit come upon our deacon and restore and refresh him.

ARISE TOGETHER IN CHRIST: As you pack your bags and head out to your summer destinations, St. John's ARISE Together in Christ Parish Team wishes you a peaceful and relaxing summer season. While you are soaking up the summer sun and fun, we will be busy planning our parish's first season of the new spiritual renewal process called ARISE Together in Christ that is sweeping the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown.

Going on vacation? Please use Online Giving to stay up to date on your contributions. Go to www.stjohnsaltoona.org and click on the Donate Now link on the left side of the page. Complete the online registration form. It's quick and easy. Your support during summer months helps sustain our parish.

This makes a great Father's Day gift!

CHOIR CONCERT: Next Sunday, June 10, at 7:00 PM the adult choir will present a concert of some of their best music, including favorites like We Are Called, You Are Mine, How Beautiful and many more. This concert will be recorded and cds will be available for purchase in the fall. This cd will include several songs sung by the youth and adult choirs from Sts. Peter & Paul Parish. All proceeds from the concert and sales of the cd will benefit our sister parish in Marmont, Haiti. If you love hearing our choir, you don't want to miss this special concert!

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES DRIVE

Gifts - $28,923 Parish Goal - $44,438

100% of your gift supports 14 ministries like Family Life. All ages and stages of families are enriched and served by Family Life Ministry—a voice for family in our Church and society. Offering a litany of services from marriage prep to marriage problems; being single to becoming a step-family; emotional, physical and spiritual support services and everything in between; Family Life Ministry is an advocate for Catholic families in our Diocese. Entire families across generations seek out its support. Keeping families together and connected to the Church is the mission, but it isn't easy to do. Divorce, loss of a loved one, and falling out of faith, are issues the ministry addresses with compassionate support provided by lay ministers whose #1 goal is to strengthen families through Christ. Says Pope Francis, "If a family is centered in Christ, He will unify and illumine its entire life." Your support will help continue the sacrament of family, transforming lives by fulfilling immediate and long-term needs. Family is a personal gift from Christ where God is made visible in our sacrificial love for one another. Your gift can be mailed to the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, P.O. Box 409, Hollidaysburg, PA 16648; placed in your parish offertory; or made online at www.dioceseaj.org
