St. Teresa of Avila Prayer

Let nothing disturb you,
Let nothing frighten you,
Though all things pass,
God does not change.
Patience wins all things.
But he lacks nothing who possesses God;
For God alone suffices.

Christ has no body now on earth
but yours,
no hands, no feet but yours.

Yours are the eyes
with which Christ looks out his compassion to the world.

Yours are the feet
with which he is to go about doing good.

Yours are the hands with which he is to bless us now.

Trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be.

Jesus breathed on them and said to them,
“Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them,
and whose sins you retain are retained.”

John 20:22-23

A Few Words from the Pastor:

COMING BACK TO MASS: On the weekend of June 13 – 14, we will begin the gradual reopening of our churches for the celebration of the Eucharist. Parishes have been asked to limit to 25 the number of participants at each liturgy. How do we do the numbers? While some parishes are handing out tickets and others are dividing the congregation alphabetically, I would propose a different approach: because the obligation to attend Mass has been waived during this pandemic, LET EVERY DAY BE SUNDAY! Rather than all of us trying to come to Mass on the weekend, I am urging that you and your family choose to come to Mass on another day of the week. Daily Mass will be offered in the church, with 8:30 Morning Mass on Tuesday and Thursday, and an evening Mass at 6:00 on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The weekend Mass schedule will remain the same. If we spread ourselves out evenly over the week, it is hoped that all of us will be able to attend. Additional Communion Services will be announced.

A MORNING PRAYER: Teilhard de Chardin was a French Jesuit priest who served as a chaplain in World War I. Following his military service, he went on to pursue his studies in theology and geology. During a geological expedition to China, he wrote his “Mass on the World,” which seeks to understand the Mass in a cosmic dimension. As we have been celebrating our faith without the opportunity for a communal Eucharist, I thought his words might be most fitting for us:

Since once again, Lord – though this time not in the forests of France but in the steps of Asia – I have neither bread, nor wine, nor altar, I will raise myself beyond these symbols, up to the pure majesty of the real itself; I, your priest, will make the whole earth my altar and on it I will offer you all the laborers and sufferings of the world.

Over there, on the horizon, the sun has just touched with light the outermost fringe of the eastern sky. Once again, beneath this moving sheet of fire, the living surface of the earth wakes and trembles, and once again begins its fearful travail. I will place on my paten, O God, the harvest to be won by this renewal of labor. Into my chalice I shall pour all the sap which is to be pressed out of this day from the earth’s fruit.

My paten and my chalice are the depths of a soul laid widely open to all the forces which in a moment will rise up from the every corner of the earth and converge upon the Spirit. Grant me the remembrance and the mystic presence of all those whom the light is now awakening to the new day. One by one, Lord, I see and I love all those whom you have given me to sustain and charm my life.

Prayer for a Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

There appeared to them
tongues as of fire,
which parted and came to rest
on each one of them.

— Acts 2:3

To give a treat of some sort just really makes a difference. There are enough loaves of bread, cans of fruit, and dried beans to go around at these places. You won't be starving someone by donating some microwave popcorn or chocolate chips now and again.

Many blessings to you for your support of those in need.

TUESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY: Monsignor is holding a Bible study on Tuesday evenings at 7 o'clock. The focus of this study will be the readings to be proclaimed on the following Sunday. ### Pentecost Sunday – Mass During the Day

Reading 1

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, “Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God.”

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 104:1, 24, 29–30, 31, 34

R. (cf. 30) Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!

How manifold are your works, O LORD!

the earth is full of your creatures;

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;

may the LORD be glad in his works!

Pleasing to him be my theme;

I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

If you take away their breath, they perish

and return to their dust.

When you send forth your spirit, they are created,

and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading 2

1 Cor 12:3b–7, 12–13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, “Jesus is Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Gospel

Jn 20:19–23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained.”

SUNDAY

MAY 31, 2020

THE SPIRIT MOVES US

Today we celebrate Pentecost, the day when the Holy Spirit was given by Jesus and received by the disciples. The readings from Acts and the Gospel of John offer accounts of that day while First Corinthians offers an analysis of the many gifts that resulted from the infusion of the Holy Spirit. The psalm and the sequence read today are filled with praise for the work of the Spirit. Today represents a culmination of all the difficult days that have gone before, the triumph of Holy Thursday, the death and despair of the Cross, the astonishing Resurrection, and the appearances of a familiar but transformed Jesus to his disciples. It represents the pivotal transition for the disciples from people of uncertainty and fear to people of commitment and action. The Spirit moves the disciples and moves us as well.

SAFETY IN NUMBERS

The apostles and all the believers in Jesus have been through a tumultuous time. They have experienced the heights of Holy Thursday and the depths of Good Friday, the uncertainties of Easter Sunday, and the multiple appearances of Jesus after his death and resurrection. They have not recognized Jesus, and when they have, they have demanded reassurance from him. Throughout most of this time they have stayed together. Acts describes them all in one place, together, when wind fills the house and tongues of fire rest on each of them. They then find themselves able to communicate with and be understood by those who had not understood them. Everyone recognizes this as a mighty act of God. John reminds us and the disciples that receiving the Spirit brings with it peace and the need for action. They receive the Spirit so they can be sent into the world to forgive sins.

ACTION IN THE SPIRIT

When our world has been turned upside down, when we are faced with uncertainties about what is real, when we are unsure about what lies ahead for us, when we don't know what we should do next, we do not want to be alone. Neither did the apostles and all those who loved Jesus. They wanted to be together when they needed to make sense of what was happening to them and what was going to be asked of them. There is safety in numbers but neither the apostles nor we can remain huddled together. The Spirit requires that we act. All the manifestations of the Spirit are given in order to benefit us and our world. The many different gifts given by the Spirit demand that we do many kinds of work, many forms of service. But we do not work alone. The Spirit is always with us.

GIFTS OF THE SPIRIT

Today we celebrate the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and in the world. In the first reading for today we read the Holy Spirit described as wind and fire (Acts 2:2-3). The Church teaches that like the wind, we cannot see the Holy Spirit but we can feel its presence. Sometime, just as the wind can move leaves, the Spirit moves us to new places. Like a breeze on a hot day, the Holy Spirit refreshes us when we are sick or lonely. It inspires us to do brave things or make wise decisions. As fire changes what it burns, the Spirit can change us, strengthen us, show us the way with its light.

When you were baptized we celebrated your new birth in the Holy Spirit. The Spirit stays with you throughout your life. It is strengthened in you in the sacrament of confirmation. Written in these flames are the names of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, given to you and alive within you.

Ask an adult to help you understand the meaning of each gift. Think about each gift, then talk about some examples of how you or one of your family members have used a certain gift. Write the examples on the flames. Say a prayer asking the Holy Spirit to continue to strengthen these gifts within you. Cut out the flames. Color them red, the color that symbolizes the Spirit. Add some orange and yellow, the colors of fire. Use them to create a mobile that can be moved by the wind—bringing both symbols of the Spirit together.
