Palm Sunday
OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

A Few Words from the Pastor:

HOLY WEEK BEGINS - Holy Week is the most solemn and glorious week in Christianity, the pinnacle of the liturgical year. It's more sacred than Christmas! This is because Holy Week commemorates the final week of Our Lord's life, the very purpose for which Christmas happened. Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday (when Jesus made his final entrance into Jerusalem) and culminates with Easter Sunday. As Holy Week progresses to its final days the solemnity heightens.

THE SACRED TRIDIUM - Sundown on Holy Thursday to sundown on Easter Sunday is considered the most solemn part of the liturgical year. This three-day period is referred to as the Easter Triduum, also known as the Sacred Triduum, or Paschal Triduum. The word "triduum" comes from the Latin word triduum, which comes from tris ("three") + dies ("day"). Basically, the Sacred Triduum is one great festival recounting the last three days of Jesus' life on earth, the events of his Passion and Resurrection, when the Lamb of God laid down his life in atonement for our sins.

The Conference of Catholic Bishops reminds us: "Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery" (USCCB).

HOLY THURSDAY MASS AND ADORATION - The evening Mass on Holy Thursday is referred to as The Mass of the Lord's Supper. This is where the Church re-lives the institution of the Eucharist and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at the Last Supper, as well as the institution of the priesthood, which took place the evening before Jesus was crucified. Extra hosts are consecrated at this Mass to be used on Good Friday when no Mass will be celebrated. Due to Covid-19, the washing of the feet will not be done this year. The Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday concludes with a procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the "altar of repose," in our Day Chapel, away from the main altar where Mass is normally celebrated, and will continue until 10PM.

GOOD FRIDAY - This is the day of the Lord's crucifixion, the day Jesus died for the sins of the world. - This is a mandatory day of fasting and abstinence. The parish altar looks very different on Good Friday: it is plain and bare. There is no consecrated Host in the tabernacle at the main altar of the church; it was carried away on Holy Thursday night to the "altar of repose" to signify Jesus' death. The candle by the tabernacle is blown out, and the tabernacle doors are left open to show that it is empty. Jesus is gone. This is quite dramatic, reminding us that Good Friday is a solemn day of mourning and prayer. The ceremony on Good Friday is not a Mass—it is a communion service using the consecrated hosts from Holy Thursday. Good Friday is the only day of the year on which no Masses are offered.

HOLY SATURDAY - On this day Christ is in the tomb. There is no daytime Mass on Holy Saturday. It is still a day of fasting and sorrow before the Easter Vigil begins that evening. We recall, with Mary and the disciples, that Jesus died and was separated from them for the first time as He lay in the tomb. The faithful often continue their Good Friday fast through Holy Saturday. In the Apostles Creed we pray "He descended into hell" (translated hades, that is, the temporary abode of the dead—not the eternal lake of fire) which describes what Jesus did in the time between his burial and Resurrection. Jesus descended to the realm of the dead on Holy Saturday to save the righteous souls—the Old Testament patriarchs, for example—who died before his crucifixion. The Catechism of the Catholic Church calls Jesus' descent into the realm of the dead "the last phase of Jesus' messianic mission," during which he "opened heaven's gates for the just who had gone before him." Before Holy Saturday, there were no souls enjoying the beatific vision of God in heaven! Christ's work on Holy Saturday is also known as the "Harrowing of Hell."

THE BLESSING OF THE EASTER BASKET - This has been a cherished Catholic ritual for centuries among families of Eastern European origin and adopted by people of all ethnic backgrounds who enjoy this richly symbolic custom. On Holy Saturday, families prepare their Easter Baskets to be later blessed at church. After Easter Sunday's Resurrection Mass, the family and guest would share this blessed fare and exchange good wishes. Our Easter Basket Blessing here at St. Joh's will take place on Holy Saturday at noon. Please come and bring your baskets!

THE EASTER VIGIL - A vigil Mass is held after nightfall on Holy Saturday, or before dawn on Easter Sunday, in celebration of the resurrection of Jesus. This is called the Easter Vigil: the most glorious, beautiful, and dramatic liturgy for the Church. The vigil is divided into four parts: 1) the Service of Light, 2) the Liturgy of the Word, 3) the Liturgy of Baptism, and 4) the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

EASTER SUNDAY - The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes it this way: "Easter is not simply one feast among others, but the 'Feast of Feasts', the 'Solemnity of Solemnities', just as the Eucharist is the 'Sacrament of Sacraments'. St. Athanasius calls Easter 'the Great Sunday' and the Eastern Churches call Holy Week 'the Great Week'. The mystery of the Resurrection, in which Christ crushed death, permeates with its powerful energy our old time, until all is subjected to him."

CONFESIONS THIS WEEK – I will be available for Confessions this Holy Week on Wednesday both before and after the 6:00 PM Mass. Have you you're your Lenten Confession?

STEWARSHIP CORNER: Jesus' mission as a steward was to fulfill his Father's mission. He humbly and obediently submitted to that mission for each one of us. We, too, play a unique role in our Father's mission. It simply begins with the witness of our lives. Jesus chose the path of service of humility, and ultimate sacrifice and love. He gave us everything in that moment. How can we share our gratitude with the Gracious Giver?

We can bring service, humility, sacrifice and love into all areas of our lives: our homes by the way we treat our family members, into our church by the way we welcome and serve our neighbors and in to our workplace by the way we speak and act. Following Jesus is the work of a lifetime. No matter our state in life, we are all called to be faithful stewards through prayer and service.

As we begin this Holy Week let us take some time to reflect on the life of Christ as he is our model Steward, and may we strive to imitate Him daily.

ONLINE GIVING UPGRADE: Our Online Giving is getting an upgrade to a newer, easier-to-use platform! If you currently give online, you will soon be receiving an email with instructions on how to log into the new system. Best of all, your existing payment and donation information will be migrated over so you will not have to set up your gifts again! Keep an eye on your email for more information coming very soon.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES DRIVE:

Catholic Charities

The 2021 Catholic Ministries

Drive encourages us to "Be a Disciple of Hope." People in this area get the help that they need because of your support towards Catholic Charities. Each year, 100% of the gifts made are allocated to the 14 ministries throughout our diocese and one of those ministries is the Catholic Charities.

In 2019-2020, Catholic Charities received $480,000- making it possible to help nearly 8,000 individuals by providing hot meals, warm beds, and open hearts during the most difficult year for local communities. These services are available to those in need regardless of their religious affiliation, race, disability, etc.

Help Catholic Charities today by mailing your gift, placing it in the parish offertory, or donating online at diosceseaj.org. 100% of your donation will go to the ministries to give help, build hope, and change lives.

SERVING THE SUFFER-

ING CHRIST: As we enter Holy Week and celebrate Palm Sunday, let's reflect on how our Lord suffered from our indifference:

those who proclaimed him king of Jerusalem were the same who called to crucify him. We recognize we are all one human family. Are we contributing to the suffering of our sisters and brothers with our indifference to their realities? How does our faith inspire us to care for them and share the gifts that God has bestowed on us?

Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl by placing it in the basket in the Gathering Space or donate online at crsricebowl.org/give.

FAMILIES AND THE GOSPEL: (Mark 14:1-15:47) The Passion of Jesus makes it clear, no one escapes suffering. Suffering is inevitable but no one should suffer alone. That is one of the primary roles of families, to stand with and support each other in suffering.

Mark 15:39

A PREVIEW OF HOLY WEEK

Palm Sunday marks the beginning of Holy Week and previews its themes and events. Today's liturgy begins with the commemoration of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem. The Roman Missal gives three options for how this can be done, the most elaborate of which begins with the priest, ministers, and the entire assembly outside. The Gospel account of the entry is read, after which palms are blessed and distributed. Then everyone enters the church in procession, singing songs or psalms. However, the joy is temporary; the Passion narrative recounts how, after an intimate meal with his disciples a few days later, Jesus is arrested, tortured, crucified, and buried. The reading from Isaiah is one of four Suffering Servant songs, while the psalm likewise gives voice to the suffering of the innocent. The reading from Philippians affirms the Incarnation as God's embrace of the entire human situation, including suffering and death.

SUFFERING . . .

It may be Palm Sunday, but the Passion is far more prominent in today's liturgy, which invites us to follow Jesus from his triumphant entrance into Jerusalem to his crucifixion and burial. It simply overflows with the sorrow and intimacy that will be dominant themes in Holy Week.

The first reading from the book of Isaiah gives voice to the suffering of an innocent person—perhaps a prophet—or the people as a whole. The refrain for the Psalm is Jesus' cry from the cross (Mark 15:34), a cry of absolute, existential loneliness. The great kenotic (emptying) hymn in Philippians provides a stunning portrait of Jesus' ultimate emptying, simultaneously intimate and cosmological.

. . . AND INTIMACY

All four Gospels have a Passion narrative. While there is agreement on the main events—an intimate meal shared by Jesus and the disciples, betrayal by Judas, prayer in Gethsemane followed by Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion—each Gospel has unique variations that give it a particular meaning or tone. In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus is anointed by an unnamed woman in the house of Simon the leper. All the Gospels have Jesus being anointed by a woman, but only Mark puts this scene just before the Last Supper. Jesus says the anointing is preparation for his burial; it is as if the woman could see a prophet's suffering in Jesus' life and feel it in his presence. Moved by compassion, she empties her jar of expensive nard on his head, pouring out her love in a profoundly intimate act. Perhaps she will also join the women who witness the crucifixion from afar (Mark 15:40–41), after the Twelve seem to be long gone.

Palm Sunday invites us to follow Jesus through the rest of Holy Week. By moving us to feel the injustice and the suffering endured by Jesus, this week's liturgies and devotions present us with those same choices. Perhaps, like the unnamed woman, we can open ourselves to others' suffering and respond with love and compassion. Or perhaps, like the Twelve, we will be conspicuous by our absence.

God's Word for Children

When people learned that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem they were excited.

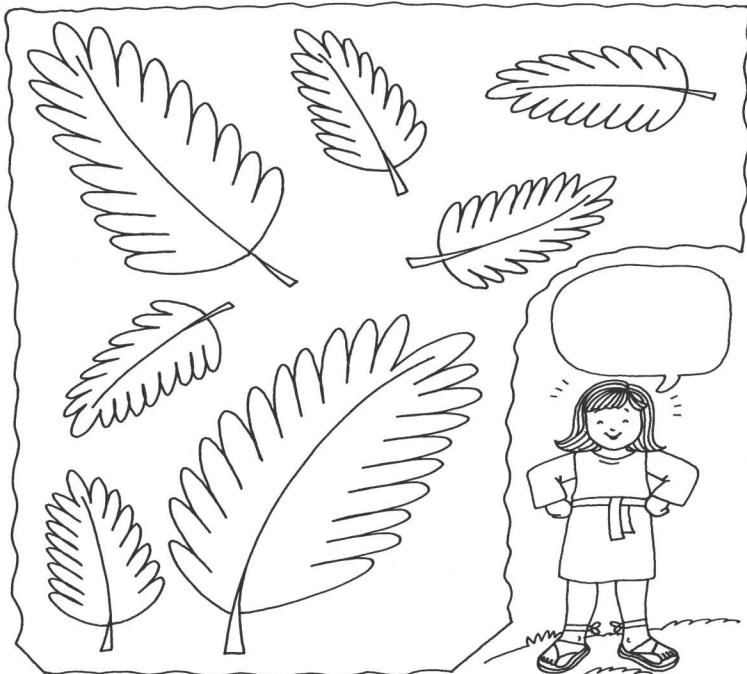

They waved palm branches and shouted "Hosanna!"

Color the big palm branches dark green.

Color the little palm branches light green.

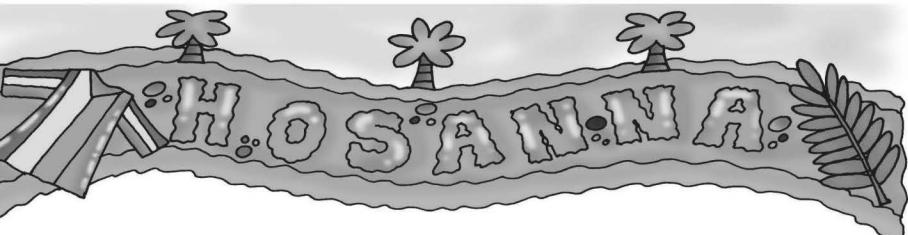

Count how many branches in all.

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Have you heard about Jesus' famous ride into Jerusalem?

You can read about it in your Bible at Mark 11:1-10.

Match the parts of this story to their correct pictures.

Then label the pictures 1 to 4 in the circles to show the order in which these events happened.

They untied it
and told people "The Master has need of it."

They brought the animal to Jesus.
They put their coats
over it.

Two disciples went to a village and found a colt tied to a gate.

Jesus sat on it and took a ride down the road among the crowds!

*"Take it; this is my body."
Mark 14:22*

WHY HAVE YOU ABANDONED ME?

Today's Gospel tells the story of the suffering and death of Jesus. When Jesus hung on the cross he prayed the words of today's psalm.

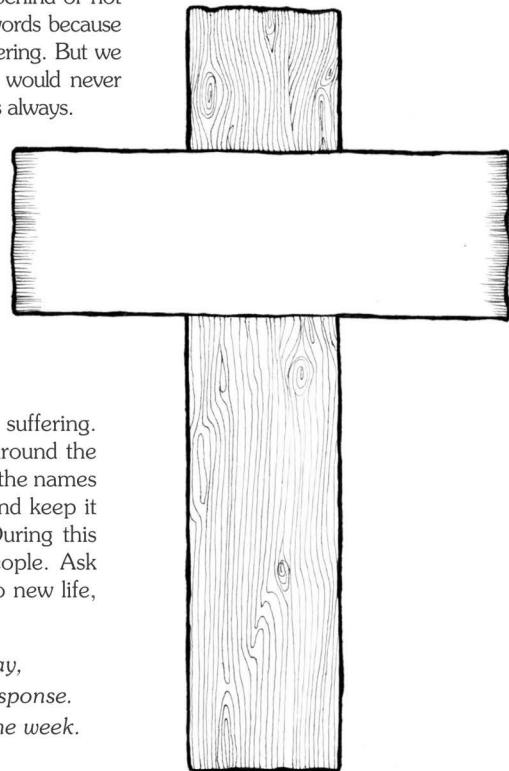

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Psalm 22:2a)

To "abandon" means to leave someone behind or not think or care about them. Jesus said these words because at that moment he felt very alone in his suffering. But we know that God did not abandon Jesus and would never abandon anyone. God promises to be with us always.

Sometimes when people are suffering, when they are very sick or perhaps without a job, they feel the way Jesus did. But remember what happened. God brought Jesus to new life. God does the same for us in many different ways. We have to trust in God just as Jesus did, even when it is hard.

Think of people you know who are suffering. You might also think of suffering people around the world you hear about in the news. Write all the names you can think of in this cross. Cut it out and keep it on your dinner table or near your bed. During this coming Holy Week, pray for all these people. Ask God to strengthen them and bring them to new life, just as God did for Jesus.

*If you sing the psalm at Mass today,
listen carefully to the melody of the response.
Try to remember it and sing it during the week.*
