A Few Words from the Pastor:

FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION: Also known as Candlemas Day, this feast on Monday February 2nd marks a transition point in the Church year, as it brings the 40 days of the Christmas cycle to its close. We are now turning our attention to the events that lead us to Lent and Easter.

BLESSING OF THROATS: The feast of St. Blaise occurs on Tuesday, February 3rd. At all Masses next weekend we will be blessing throats. Blaise was bishop of Sebaste (in modern-day Turkey/Armenia region) and was both a physician and a bishop. He was known for holiness, healing, and care for the sick, and martyred around the year 316 during Roman persecution. According to tradition, he miraculously healed a boy who was choking on a fish bone. Because of this, Christians began asking his intercession for throat problems.

ADULT ED: Our Sunday morning Adult Ed continues, as we will continue our discussion of the Nicene Creed. ALL ARE WELCOME! First timers are especially welcome to our study and fellowship, which begins at 8:15ish and concludes by 10:30ish!

WEDNESDAY EVENING BIBLE STUDY: On Wednesday at 6:45 PM in the parish center (following our evening Mass), we gather to reflect on the Sunday readings. Our sessions last about an hour. Matthew the Evangelist will be our faithful companion! Please join us!

POPE LEO SPEAKS! In his weekly audience this week, Pope Leo continued his catechesis series dedicated to the Second Vatican Council and its documents. He focused again on the Dogmatic Constitution Dei Verbum, on Divine Revelation. He highlighted the close relationship between Sacred Scripture and Tradition, meaning the living transmission of the Gospel through the Holy Spirit. The Word of God “is not fossilized, but rather it is a living and organic reality that develops and grows in Tradition. Thanks to the Holy Spirit, Tradition understands it in the richness of its truth and embodies it in the shifting coordinates of history.” In this regard, the expression of Saint Gregory the Great is famous: “The Sacred Scriptures grow with the one who reads them”. In this regard, the proposal of the holy Doctor of the Church John Henry Newman in his work entitled The Development of Christian Doctrine is striking. He affirmed that Christianity, both as a communal experience and as a doctrine, is a dynamic reality, in the manner indicated by Jesus himself in the parables of the seed (cf. Mk 4:26-29): a living reality that develops thanks to an inner vital force, the Holy Spirit.

Once again, our SVDP Conference would like to thank all those who help make our programs possible and the lives of the needy a bit easier. God Bless You All!

FINAL CMD UPDATE: The 2025 Catholic Ministries Drive ended on December 31st. We exceeded our goal by $9,885! Did you know that anything over our goal comes back to the church? Additional funds will go to our Heating and Cooling Fund to replace our current aging system. We are looking at HVAC options for replacement and bids. Thank you to everyone who has donated! Your financial support is greatly appreciated!

STEWARDSHIP CORNER: Today's Gospel Reading from Matthew recounts what we know as Christ's Sermon on the Mount. This entire reflection could be devoted to that, of course, but as always, there are also messages that are important in the other readings. The Sermon on the Mount is the first of five teachings Jesus gives us in the Gospel of Matthew. The Lord gives this relatively early in His Ministry, not long after He has been baptized. In the entire New Testament this is the longest continuous section of Jesus speaking, and it is perhaps the most widely quoted part of the four Canonical Gospels. It contains, after all, the central rules of discipleship. Today's Gospel provides us with instructions from Jesus as to what kind of people His disciples should be. There are more than enough key words on which to reflect and pray: poor, mourn, meek, hunger, mercy, peacemakers, clean and persecuted – to name a few. We could concentrate on each one, but it is worth pointing out that these all are traits the Lord calls us to. For example, when Jesus says that to be blessed, we need to 'hunger and thirst for righteousness,' He is reminding us of what our focus in life should be. In our world people hunger for many things that may not be that important – things like power, success, wealth, possessions and comfort. The idea of being righteous in His eyes is more important than any of those.

There can be many possibilities. Sometime Helpers is a list of people who sign up with their names and emails through the office.
